

A healthy place to live

Year-round health service pays off in Arlington Heights

Mrs. Carroll, community nurse has just completed her annual report to the health committee. The effectiveness of the health program has made Arlington Heights one of the healthiest communities in Cook County.

If any proof of that statement was needed it has been found in the general health condition of many of the newer residents of the community who come from areas that do not possess such a comprehensive health service as Arlington Heights.

The corrections needed by many of these new children have been the health IQ of the village, but parents are cooperative, and corrections are being made to raise the health of these children to that of the older residents.

The report of the nurse for the year of 1946-47 tells what has been done in Arlington Heights to keep her children healthy. The cost of that service is possible thru the monthly budgets of the Elementary Schools, the village of Arlington Heights, which aggregate $150 a month.

The Chicago Tuberculosis Institute pays the balance of the expense including car rental, etc., which is partly made possible by purchase of Christmas seals the holiday season.

The report follows Communicable Disease Control: Communicable disease has remained at a minimum this year, except for many cases of influenza this spring. We have had a few cases of mumps and chicken pox, and one case of scarlet fever.

During the summer months of 1946, we had two cases of polio, but both were able to enter school later in the year and have been doing well.

Maternity Service: We are no longer receiving referrals on the E. M. I. C. Cases. We have had a few carried over from last year. In addition, community nurses are being referred by the State Health Department to determine whether new born babies are under adequate care.

New born slips referred through the Cook County Health Department to Health Center. Most of our babies are being cared for by local physicians. These calls made only as time permits that reason. To date no neglected infants have been found.

School Care: Since the need for a two to three year old clinic is not apparent at this time, the first time these children are officially seen frequently at the nurse-parent conference before entering school the first time. All elementary schools are requiring this examination and conference before admission to school now. Sixty per cent of the children seen spring had had all needed immunizations, completed, and physical defects corrected or to the conference.

Exceptional Child Care: We now have one child in a school for the blind, one in a saving school, one in an orthopedic school, and three orphans for whom we are arranging the best possible care. We also have two children with rheumatic hearts who are receiving instructions in their home.

Morbidity Service: Fifteen adults have been under care for short periods of this year. Because of limited time these cases are not carried on indefinitely but are carried only until other arrangements can be made or a member of the family taught to give care.

Race tracker placed under $2,000 bond;
disregarded stop sign

Dr. W. F. Long of Texas was placed under $2,000 bond by Judge Behrens last Friday in lieu of insurance on his car which struck the side of a truck being driven by Fred Gerken. Mr. Gerken's granddaughter was severely cut by flying glass about the face. The doctor's wife is in the Palatine Community hospital with a broken leg.

Wheeling Republicans promise a good time
at first dance

Members of Wheeling Township Republican Club are promising a good time to all those who attend their first annual dance which will be held Friday evening, June 13, at Elk Grove Inn on Higgins road. Earl Friedrichs will furnish the music. Admission with tax adds up to $1.00.

This club has a large membership both young and old. Some of them may not venture on the dance floor, but they will be on hand to greet the crowd that is expected to attend.

What would J. D. say
if he saw it now

When J. D. Flentie pulled up stakes and went to California, one of his last acts was the sale of property he owned on Wilke road, adjoining the C. & N. W. R. R. The tract was originally a slough. It has become a small mountain now of rubbish and garbage. J. D. is not in a position to get out a shot gun and sit on the rubbish pile to keep off further trespassers. That job falls upon the new owner.

"No trespassing" signs do not mean a thing. Car after car makes donations to the rubbish pile. Races start at Arlington Park next Monday with the rubbish pile in the front yard.

Waitin' for the Fourth

"THINK NOTHING OF IT, CHIEF — WE'VE GOT TICKETS ON THE NEW BUICK."

Arlington race track in peak of summer glory

Arlington Park, one of the country's most picturesque and spacious race courses, is now receiving workmen's finishing touches in preparation for next Monday's opening of America's richest summer program. The fastest and most fashionable of the nation's thoroughbreds will perform in a setting calculated to delight the eye and cater to the comfort of Chicago's racing public.

Racing fans who attend the Arlington Park opening will find the beautiful countryside around the course just reaching the peak of its summer glory. With the passing of cold spring weather early this week, the thousands of flowers, trees and shrubs covering the spacious grounds are fast attaining their full grandeur. Hundreds of young white ducks in the infield lakes are busy quacking with delight as they explore their new domain.

The corps of workmen whose job it is to groom the spacious plant for the comfort and pleasure of the racing public are now taking advantage of pleasant weather to complete their tasks for the 36-day program. Men assigned to mowing the luxuriant grass, and gardeners setting out flowers bordering the infield lakes and planting the formal beds in front of the totalisator board are just two of many groups bent on making Arlington Park more resplendent this season than ever before in its colorful history. Thousands of flowers also adorn the grandstand and clubhouse box-stands, the walking ring behind the Post and Paddock Club, which is the gayest spot on the grounds with its red-and-white striped awnings slanting downward from its sun-drenched tile roof.

Under the careful scrutiny of Benjamin F. Lindheimer, executive director of both Arlington and Washington Park, the vast racing plant is now ready to welcome thousands of turf lovers next Monday. The big 1 1/8 mile oval course, for years noted as one of the fastest, yet safest, in the country, has been pronounced in the pink of condition by Ben Jones and other noted trainers already on the grounds. The seven-furlong and mile chutes entering the backstretch are just as fast and smooth as the main course, in the opinion of John D. Jackson, general manager. The mile chute is the same down which the mighty Equipoise blazed to fame and glory in 1932 for his memorable world record of 1:34 2/5 which has never since been seriously endangered.

The picturesque infield turf course, the scene of many stirring contests, has a deep cushion of fresh grass bordered by trim hedges and gleaming white fence rails the entire mile of its circumference. Nearly every day one race will be held over this course which for many years has been quite popular with the Arlington patrons.

Underneath the cool, dark green ceiling of the immense grandstand the Arlington patrons will find thousands of free seats conveniently adjacent to betting windows, refreshment stands and rest rooms. These facilities, besides being available on the ground floor, are also easily reached on two upper levels.

In the clubhouse section box-holders will find chairs newly decorated in a pleasant yellow shade. On the grandstand and clubhouse terraces are many other seats for patrons who prefer to be closer to the tree-shaded paddock in the rear of the stands.

Grading work is now being completed on the vast parking lots which extend beyond the ends of the grandstand and clubhouse. The Arlington Park Jockey Club plans to continue its policy this season of having courteous attendants handle the parking at a maximum charge of only twenty-five cents per car. This policy will be rigidly enforced.

Old Folk's Home
festival July 13

The first post war festival of the Arlington Heights Old Folk's Home will be held on the home's grounds July 13. There will be a guest speaker for the afternoon services.

A program of entertainment will be presented after the services. The Harmony band of Chicago will play for the services as well as the program. Lunches and a variety of refreshments will be available.

About 30 Arlington Heights women have been sewing diligently for many months making everything from aprons to baby booties. These items will be one of the feature attractions at the festival.

Choral society to give concert this Thursday evening

All music lovers are invited to attend the third annual concert of the Prospect Heights Choral Society that will be given this Thursday evening, June 12, at eight o'clock, in the auditorium of the Arlington Heights high school. Admission will be fifty cents.

Carl Gingrich, baritone, and the Rhythm Sisters, dancers, will be guest artists featured on the program, which will consist of several varieties of music.

Summer band to start rehearsals

The first rehearsal of the Arlington Heights summer band will be held Tuesday evening, June 17, at eight o'clock in the high school band room. All members of last year's summer band are urged to attend and new members will be welcomed.

Offer chance to
with rose bushes

Warwick Ray, civic minded postal employee, came into the office of the Des Plaines Chamber of Commerce with an idea. Mr. Ray saw at the Premier Rose Gardens, Touhy and Mannheim, a large supply of large red rose plants and in talking to the plant manager, George Mundt, arranged to have these made available to any Des Plainesites who wants to plant these roses a bundle of 25 for only 5c per plant.

The Premier people say these are their regular plants that will bloom in six weeks after planting. They have been replaced by younger plants in the greenhouse. They should live for 10 years with proper care.

Building committee dissolved by Arlington village boardProfessional talent booked for July 5-6

The 1947 edition of Arlington Heights July 4th celebration will have a lot of professional entertainment on Saturday and Sunday evenings. The program committee was told to get the best and they think they have done so. They are spending the entertainment budget on the two evenings following the fourth on the assumption that the fire works display and other usual July 4 attractions will fill Friday evening.

The committee members are: Rev. Milo J. Vondracek, E. A. Carneross, Tom Hildebrandt, Kenneth Kennedy and Dr. Dunn.

Friday night entertainment

The master of ceremonies on Friday night will be Vincent Gottschalk, a man of distinguished appearance and magnetic personality. Mr. Gottschalk demonstrates his unusual mental cap-

No Fireworks

As the 4th of July approaches this year, we are reminded to urge the full cooperation of the residents of this community in enforcement of the Illinois Fireworks Law. As defined in the statute the retail sale and use of fireworks is illegal.

The State of Illinois ranks third highest in the United States with bad fireworks records. As in years past, the Arlington Heights police have been directed to suppress shooting of fireworks and we feel sure that we can count on everyone in Arlington Heights and community to help make this a year with no fireworks accidents.

ALBERT W. GOEDKE, Mayor.

Acities in an engaging and amazing memory feat which he calls "a trip to the fourth dimension." His crossword puzzle in figures on blackboard is another extremely interesting mental experiment. His anecdotes are packed with solid humor and his friendly delivery wins his audience instantly.

Claude &amp; Andrea

A riotous dancing combination, will be Claude & Andrea, famous for their comedy characterization. Andrea is a handsome toweling column of femininity who stands 6 ft. 4 in. in her dainty stocking feet. Her partner, Claude, is a moderate sized but agile dancing foil. Andrea studied dancing so as to prevent the usual awkwardness of a tall girl and it was during a dancing performance in a school play that a well known comedienne saw her and suggested that she try for a career in show business.

Acrobatic feats

Doris Bay, a petite star of difficult contortion dancing, performs amazing acrobatic feats on top of a 12 inch pedestal. She has appeared in many of the largest theatres of this country and in Europe.

Hank, the Mule

Children who witness the Saturday evening show will talk a long time about Hank, the mule, and his girl companion who put "him" thru his many antics. "A talking mule you say?" Come and hear him.

Need rooms for teachers

Families who can provide a room during the coming school year for an Arlington Heights teacher, are urged by Supt. R. E. Clabaugh to make this known by calling his office, Arlington Heights 596. It is desirable that such rooms be located within walking distance of one of the schools and also of the business district.

There is an urgent need also for light housekeeping rooms or for places where cooking privileges can be provided for couples without children.

Woodstock man hits
state police car

Frank L. Kennedy of Woodstock wrecked his own car June 6 when he struck the rear of a state police car that had stopped on Algonquin road to permit autoists on Route 53 to make a left hand turn. Kennedy admitted that he saw the police car 600 feet distant, but the next instant he was on top of it. He was on his way home from a convention.

Geisen to get license; Sherwood
improvements o. k'd

In special session Monday evening, the village board decided to repeal the ordinance creating a building committee in and for the village of Arlington Heights, until some definite rules and regulations can be set up by ordinance to provide the authority necessary.

President Goedke stated that in his opinion the building committee could not function under the ordinance recently passed. He had understood that the committee had been formed for the purpose of checking plans and specifications of proposed buildings to see that they met with the present building code requirements. However, the committee in order to do what they considered a good job, had sought to set up standards that are not required in the present code and that the withholding of the permits was holding up a lot of construction and making many families unhappy.

Report on pre-fabs

Carl Teutsch reported on prefabricated housing and his chief objection was from fire hazard and safety requirements. It was noted that in most "prefabs" there is no plaster, but only two quarter inch thicknesses of plywood serving as partitions or walls. The steel girders upon which the floor rests do not meet requirements of Chicago's building code and according to Mr. Teutsch, is one of the reasons they are not permitted in the city. He estimated that in the event of a fire, the floor might collapse within a few minutes. He did, however, state that there might be places within the village suitable for prefabricated houses and he noted that the two homes existing had drop siding and shingles on the exterior which improves the general appearance considerably. Action was withheld on requests for permits for a prefabricated house pending further investigation.

Geisen bus to apply for license in Arlington

Geisen Motor Coach Co. of Des Plaines appeared before the board requesting a license to operate during the racing meet to and from the race track. The daily fee of $3.00 was the issue involved and Mr. Bradley, representing Geisen, addressed the board regarding the fee. He contended that they qualified for the annual rate since they operate a school bus, picking up passengers within the village and have been operating in that capacity since 1934 when they purchased the business from Wm. Metz.

Bradley said the daily fee was, in his opinion, unconstitutional, since it was discriminatory and unreasonable. The clerk was directed to issue an annual license providing the required bond was posted which will guarantee payment of the daily fee in the event the operator fails to operate for a period of ten consecutive days in the remainder of the calendar year.

Sherwood plans for streets approved

H. R. Jacobsen's plans and specifications for street improvements were approved by the board and construction is to be started this week north of Oakton on Princeton to Clarendon to Harvard ave., continuing on Watling west.

Henry C. W. Meyer was appointed for a 5-year term on the Zoning Board of Appeals and Forrest Davis was appointed as secretary of the same body for the ensuing year.

Legislators support school
appropriations

Friends of education in Illinois learned this week that 129 members of the legislature showed their independence of Gov. Green in kicking to pieces the budget of the governor by adding approximately $9,500,000 to the school distributive fund. Only four Republican stalwarts voted no.

That amount was only a start-er. $28,000,000 was added to the governor's budget figure for the school fund increasing it to the full $33,400,000 demanded by educational leaders.

Gov. Green has threatened to veto the measure. Opponents say that appropriations for public buildings that will not be built should be given to the schools.

Housemover needed to rescue autoist
from truck-car wreck

Two Chicago residents escaped death by inches Saturday night when their car failed to obey a stop sign and was crushed by a huge Greening truck loaded with 20 tons of freight. After large tow trucks failed, Fred Haemker, house mover of Palatine, lifted the truck body nearly two hours after the accident and liberated Jos. Schobler, driver of the car.

The truck was traveling northwest on Rand Road. Schobler was driving west on Dundee road. When the truck driver saw that an accident was unavoidable, he swerved his truck. The auto hit the trailer. The impact coupled with the momentum of the loaded trailer as it was turned from its normal course, caused the body to fall on the car.

J. A. Levy, passenger in the car, was thrown out. The back of the front seat was broken backwards which threw the driver flat on the floor, saving his life. A fire was extinguished by hand fire extinguishers. In order to guard against later fire, the Palatine fire department was called and the Tharp ambulance stood by. Large wrecking trucks from the Glenview navy yard and Northbrook wreckers were unable to budge the truck body. Hand operated jacks used for housemoving did the trick after considerable part of the freight had been removed.

Both men were treated at the Palatine Community hospital. The driver had severe scalp wounds requiring many stitches. The passenger escaped with a cut leg.

Girl scouts to open day camp next week

More than one hundred and forty Girl Scouts of Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect are eagerly anticipating the morning of June 17 when they will begin a week of outdoor living at the Elk Grove Girl Scout Day Camp. Plans for the camp, including registration, transportation, purchasing, and program have been made by the camp committee composed of Mrs. Elsworth Meincke, chairman from Arlington Heights and Mrs. George Edgcombe from Mt. Prospect. Committee members include Mrs. Carl Drevies, Mrs. Alfred Sandert, Mrs. Louis Keppeler, Mrs. Fred Hertel, Mrs. John Desch and Mrs. Fred Siegel.

A new feature of this year's camp is work toward outdoor badges. They include Outdoor Cook Badge, Camp Craft Badge, Wild Plant Finder Badge, Insect Finder Badge and Foot Traveler Badge. The Camp Craft Badge which is open only to girls who have completed the seventh or eighth grades, will offer additional camping opportunities.

A special treat will be the hikes conducted by two Forest Preserve Naturalists who will lead groups of twenty-five girls on Nature Study excursions.

Mrs. Fred Tice, president of the Mt. Prospect Girl Scout council, will direct the week of girl scout camping, while Mrs. Alva Meyer, president of the Arlington Heights council will direct the Brownie week to follow. The council presidents accepted this additional responsibility in order that the Day Camp project might be carried out, when Mrs. Eugene Brooks found it impossible to direct the camps. Mrs. Brooks, who was formerly a girl scout official, representing National Scouting in Columbus, Ohio, had accepted the directorship but will be unable to attend the camp because of plans for a change of residence. Mrs. Brooks is conducting the outdoor training program for leaders before leaving for her new home in Indiana.

The Girl Scouts are inviting their families to attend the evening camp fire at 6 p.m. Friday, June 20. Parents are urged to come with a picnic supper for their own family and share with their daughter in the closing camp activities.

Transportation

Bus transportation will be provided daily for girl scouts to and from the camp. Arlington Heights girls may board the bus promptly at 9 a.m. at the North school or at 9:15 at Tackett's Scarsdale Real Estate office on South State road, except Friday. On Friday, the leaving time will be 2:30 and 2:45.

Mt. Prospect girls may board their bus promptly at 9 a.m. at the Mt. Prospect Public school, except Friday when the leaving time will be 2:30.

The camp will close daily at 3:30, except on Friday when it will close at 9 p.m. The bus will return the girls each day at the end of the camp season.

Birthday party

Elaine Butenschoen of Des Plaines entertained a few friends Thursday afternoon with a party in honor of her eighth birthday, which will be June 17. Pink decorations prevailed on the table and in the various rooms. The guests enjoyed playing party games and group pictures were taken. Elaine received many nice gifts. Ice cream, cake, cookies, pop, and prizes for all completed the afternoon.

Invite teen-agers to attend dance

The "Conference Carousel" is the name of the big dance to be given June 20 at the Terrace Casino of the Morrison hotel in Chicago, especially for teen-agers of the Chicago area. Dancing to the smooth music of a good name band will begin at 7:30 p. m. and admission will be $2.40 per couple, including tax. Top-notch star entertainers will be on hand for the floor show. All teen-agers interested in attending this dance should call Arlington Heights 246.

Notice

Take notice that an application for retail liquor dealers' license outside incorporated village or town in Cook county has been made by the following: Edward Miniet "Popular Tavern" Higgins and Bartlett Roads, Route No. 1, Box 172, Barrington Township, Barrington, Ill. Objections to the granting of such license may be made to the President of the Board of Commissioners of Cook County as Local Liquor Control Commissioner in writing and signed by the objector within five days stating specifically the grounds of objection. W. N. ERICKSON, Cook County Liquor Control Commissioner.

Irregular Aging

The various parts of the body do not grow old at the same time.

Early Lutheran missionaries to the American Indian

The Missouri Synod of the Lutheran church, a body which is celebrating the centennial of its organization in 1847, carried on successful missionary work among the American Indians. Lutheran friends of missions in Europe sent over a number of men who established outposts in the wilds of Michigan among the Chippewas.

In 1845 Pastor William Loehe of Bavaria sent colonies of Lutheran Christians who were to settle among the Indians as a group and demonstrate Christian life to them. In this way Indian children were brought into white schools and the adult Indian was placed into contact with a Christian community.

VFW festival parade in Des Plaines

As part of the 10 day annual D-Days festival the VFW will hold a parade on Sunday, June 15. Twenty of the middle west's outstanding drum and bugle corps will compete for $1,500 in prizes and trophies. The line of march will be from Earle Field, through the Des Plaines business district to Rand park.

According to officials of Des Plaines Post 2992 VFW, sponsors of the 10 day festival, this year's event promises to be the biggest in history. Each night starting with the opening on June 12 on through the last night, June 22, will feature outstanding acts. One highlight of the program will be the awarding of the 1947 Dodge deluxe sedan.

They also were entertained by Chick Thomas, took a tour of the club quarters, and played Keeno.

The program included a talk by Mr. Bonhivert, a teacher; Mr. Bohlman and the pastor from the Evangelical church of Des Plaines. An enjoyable evening was had by the immediate families of the graduates and the PTA. Refreshments of cake and coffee, served by Mrs. Kleeman, completed the evening.

IN MEMORIAM

FRED LINNENKOHLE.—In loving memory of our son and brother who passed away 8 years ago.

The flowers we place upon your grave
May wither and decay
But love for you who sleeps beneath will never fade away
Our hearts still ache with loneliness
Our eyes shed many a tear
God alone knows how much we miss you
As it ends the 8 sad years.
Loving Parents, Sisters and Brother.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ANNE NICHOLS.—In loving memory of our beloved daughter and sister who passed away twelve years ago, June 8, 1935.

What would I give to clasp her hand
Her lovely face to see;
To hear her voice and see her smile
That meant so much to us.
Loving Mother, Father, Sister and Brother.

IN MEMORIAM

EDWARD C. HRDLICKA.—In loving memory of our dear husband and father who passed away one year ago June 14, 1946.

Health service

Tuberculosis Service:

We now have only one active case of tuberculosis. This patient is under adequate care and is doing well. All our arrested cases are under clinic or private doctors care.

Once a year, in the early fall, following the tuberculin testing program in our seventh and eighth grades, and in the high school, the Mobile X-ray unit of the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County is here to take free chest X-rays of our positive reactors to the test, the teachers and custodians in our schools, patients referred by our doctors, patients from the Old Folks Home and any citizen who requests an X-ray. In September of 1946 300 X-rays were taken the day the Mobile Unit was at the high school. The Mobile unit is scheduled to be here at the high school September 29, 1947 from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

School Health Service:

Immediately following the opening of school our sixth, seventh and eighth grade public school children are given a pre-physical education examination to rule out the presence of heart conditions or hernias that would contraindicate such exercise. Those suspected of having such conditions are referred to their family doctor for further examinations. Your nurse assists the doctor both by planning this program, and assisting at the examination itself. Since fifth grade students are required to have a complete physical examination under state law they are not again examined at school that year.

The second week of school a survey of all elementary school children's dental health is made. This examination is made possible by the cooperation of all our local dentists who donate their time to this project. Reports are sent home to the parents of all the children examined at this time. Attached to this report card is a form which when filled out and returned shows if the parents can finance the necessary dental care. This is the basis for our establishing eligibility for our dental clinic.

Dental Health education is conducted throughout the year in the classroom, using visual aids, and text books. This year six of the rooms of our elementary schools were 100% corrected dentally, before the close of school.

St. James school again received the State Dental Health Achievement Award for having five rooms in which all students had complete dental corrections made. Their school percentage was 98.2%. This is an all time high average. Six years ago, at this time that school was less than 70% corrected. This is largely due to the perseverance of the Sisters in encouraging the children to have their dental work done year after year.

Dental clinic:

Our dental clinic starts in January and continues until care is completed on all children who are determined to be eligible for clinic care. Because of the better financial conditions of the past few years our clinic lists have been smaller. This year fourteen children were approved for care. Fourteen complete examinations were made with prophylaxis, eighteen fillings were done, and five extractions. Because of the improvement in dental health of these children from year to year under clinic care, the cost per child is now noticeably less.

This clinic work was completed in six and one half clinic hours. Clinics all were held in the offices of our local dentists. All local dentists cooperated.

Diphtheria

In October, our Schick Testing and Diphtheria immunization program was started. Schick tests were done in the schools by our local doctors without charge. Toxoid for positive reactors was offered. This was given in three doses, three weeks apart. Fifty cents was charged for each shot. Eighty children were immunized this year. Ninety-two per cent of the children in our elementary schools have been immunized or have shown a negative Schick Test within the last three years.

PATENT GRANTED

A patent for an improved container for containers has just been issued to Wayne D. Brandon, Skokie. He has assigned it to Baxter Laboratories of Glenview.

Small Pox:

Small-Pox vaccinations were offered to all school children in February. Fifty cents was charged for this also, with our local doctors doing the vaccinating. Eighty-seven per cent of the children show record of at least one successful vaccination.

Routine Examinations:

Vision tests are done on children enrolled in our school system annually. If a defect in vision is suspected, it is reported to the parents and further examination by an oculist is recommended. Practically all of the children referred for further care have had this examination before this date, and necessary care has been given. There are five children who are not under care yet. These expect to have care this summer.

Hearing tests are also done annually on all children above the second grade. Children suspected of having hearing loss on gross examination are given an individual test. Children below the third grade are tested individually if a defect is suspected.

Western Electric Group Audiotesters, and Maico Puritone Audiotesters are used in giving the test.

Ask donations for orphans in Europe

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League of America recently made an appeal to the ladies of the Arlington Heights St. Peter church for donations of many small items for orphans in war-torn Europe. A box has been placed in front of the church hall to receive such items.

Listed here are the things requested: children's clothing of all kinds; linens; sewing materials; knitting and crocheting materials; first aid materials; vitamins, bandages, and miscellaneous items, such as hair brushes, combs, bobbie pins, tooth brushes, nail files, soap and garden seeds.

This project is being handled by the local Women's Missionary League, of which Mrs. Charles Klenm is chairman. The St. Peter World Relief committee has expressed itself willing to take care of the actual shipping.

Legion Auxiliary notes

The June business meeting of the Merle Guild Unit No. 208 American Legion Auxiliary will be held at Legion hall Tuesday evening, June 17. This will be the last meeting before the Legion festival. An election of officers is also on the agenda. Members are asked to help at the festival from the 19th to the 22nd inclusive. Please report to Mrs. Olson to find when help will be needed.

Next Wednesday Mary Jean Bentz will be leaving for MacMurray college at Jackson, Ill., to attend Girl's State. She is the seventh girl to be sent by Merle Guild.

All chance books on the Singer electric sewing machine should be returned to Mrs. Olson by June 19.

Doris Pape again honored with shower

Stork shower

A stork shower was given last Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Stanley Luszak of Arlington Heights at the home of Mrs. Walter Schroeder. The shower was given jointly by Mrs. Schroeder and Mrs. Frank Brodman. Ten guests watched the guest of honor open the many tiny gifts, which was followed by luncheon and refreshments. The luncheon table was decorated in pink and blue, with a stork centerpiece, and rattle favors for the guests.

Given more showers

Although Miss Jean Schroeder of Palatine had already been honored by several bridal showers, on Decoration Day, when she was planning to attend a picnic at the country home of her aunt and uncle in Huntley, she received another surprise. Jean and her fiancé, Herman Becker, Jr., were met on the highway upon entering Huntley and were forced to ride on a gaily decorated hay rack. The groom to be was made to don a Prince Albert suit and silk top hat, while Jean was given a wedding dress with a bustle. These garments had been used previously by her grandmother and grandfather on their wedding day. As attendants, Kenneth Schroeder wore a Palm Beach suit and Eileen Schroeder a full skirt and high necked waist, also worn by Jean's grandparents on their honeymoon. The wedding procession was followed by fifteen cars and a mock ceremony was performed at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder. About 100 guests were present, and Jean received many lovely gifts.

The following Monday she was again surprised when sixteen members of her girls' club gave her a personal shower. Miss Doris Pape was hostess. Jean Schroeder and Herman Becker, Jr. will be married at four p. m. Saturday, June 14, at Immanuel Lutheran church, Palatine. Rev. Koester officiating. A reception will be held at the Arlington fieldhouse at eight o'clock.

Rep. Van Der Vries for reapportionment

An article appearing in a Chicago newspaper on the blocking tactics used by legislators opposed to reapportionment the impression was given that Bernice Van Der Vries, representative of this district was also opposed to the bill. Mrs. Van Der Vries in letters to the editor that appeared in the same paper June 9, clearly stated her position as follows:

"I regret very much the article in the Daily News which naturally would give the impression that I was participating in a movement to block reapportionment.

"The article on Aztec herbs—a very short one—was read to show that there were as many arguments being used on a parliamentary question; namely, the suspension of House Rule Six, as there were ingredients in a 1552 Aztec prescription for worn-out public officials. I was making the point that we were only working on Rule Six and not on reapportionment.

"I have consistently voted for reapportionment at every opportunity, and in many talks have tried to arouse the people of Illinois, both upstate and downstate, to the need of fair and equal representation in our national Congress.

"I would, therefore, be the last person to use blocking tactics."

Arlington classes of '44 and '45 plan reunion dance

Plans for the reunion of the Arlington Heights township high school classes of 1944 and 1945 have been completed. It will take place in the Arlington Heights high school gymnasium Saturday night, July 19, in the form of a dance, but the main idea will be a "general get-together" to renew old acquaintances. Included in the program will be a few of the "humorous highlights" of these two classes.

"Money to cover expenses is being accepted in the form of a donation of $1.00 per person wishing to attend, or $2.00 a couple. Letters have already been sent to the people of these two classes whose addresses were able to be found, explaining the plans and purpose of this reunion. It was impossible to find everyone's address, so anyone who was a member of either of these two classes and did not receive one of these letters should take notice here. Donations can be sent to Henry Ehard, acting treasurer for the reunion. His address is: 206 Maple Avenue, Mt. Prospect.

Upon receipt of donation, he will write you to admittance. Donations must be in by June 21.

Illinois Prima Facie Speed Law

An absolute maximum statewide speed limit throughout Illinois for automobiles is objectionable and is contrary to the considered judgment of the best traffic experts of the country, says the Legislative Bureau of the Illinois Automobile Club. The present Illinois speed law follows closely the recommendations of the National Conference on street and highway safety, composed of a score or more of national organizations interested in traffic safety.

Illinois has what is known as a "prima facie" law, based on the fundamental principle that no automobile shall be driven at a speed that is greater than is "reasonable and proper having regard to the traffic and the use of the way or so as to endanger the life or limb or injure the property of any person."

Pending in the Illinois Legislature is H. B. 440 which would abolish years of work and study on this subject by all the national organizations of the country. It would set up an absolute speed limit anywhere in the state of 50 miles an hour.

RAMBLE INN 'N OUTINGS

by BILL NORTH

The Youth Center will be closed until the equipment can be moved upstairs. The Y. C. will be open this summer. It will have restricted operation, however. There will be no ping-pong or coke bar. There will, however, be music, dancing, and a lounge. The schedule for the summer will be announced in this column next week. The officers of Ramble Inn had a meeting on Wednesday, June 11, but I was unable to obtain the results in time for this week's column.

—Y. C.—

Ramble Inn was founded through the joint cooperation of adults and students. Most of us know how the project was carried out, but few of us are fully aware of the number of men and women who worked so efficiently and effectively to make our Youth Center the important institution it is today.

A group of students at Arlington Heights Township high school recognized the need for a place like Ramble Inn. They immediately gained the support of the student body. It was talked up, a plan was outlined, and Mr. Paddock used his influence and the influence of the Arlington Heights Herald to arouse interest in the project.

Interest was aroused, too. Almost at once, the Arlington Hts. Community Council of which N. M. Lattot was then president decided that a Y. C. would be a fine influence on the students. The Council turned over to the Youth Activities Committee of the Council the job of aiding in the creation of Ramble Inn.

The first Youth Activities Committee of the Community Council was made up of Charles Doellefeld representing the P. T. A., Mr. Egdorf, representing the high school, R. E. Clabaugh, representing the elementary schools, A. W. Bathje, representing the Lutheran school, Arthur Cubley, representing the Boy Scouts, Mrs. Kennedy, Girl Scouts, Rev. W. F. Kampfenkel, St. Johns, Pat McDonald, St. James, Harry Robinson, the high school parents and Robert M. Beatty, the Park Board.

This committee enlisted most of the adult support given to the Y. C. Mr. Beatty, serving as chairman of the committee, worked right along with the students, planning, organizing, working. It is to this group of men and women and especially to Mr. Beatty, that the parents of Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Prospect Heights owe their deepest gratitude, for the Youth Activities Committee made a dream a reality. They made an idea grow and flourish until it blossomed into the important, active, living Youth Center that exists today. Ramble Inn is a monument and credit to their work.

—Y. C.—
The papers cry their fear for youth
Magazines point to delinquency
But if people only knew the truth
Their minds would be more free.
They need not fear for us
Their parents felt the same way too
There's no need to make a fuss
For when we're needed we'll come through

The papers play up evil to raise their circulation
And the gossips and the biddies thrive on dirt
So if you want to help us, make an emendation
To any rumor that you think might hurt.

Feed on Bark

During the winter, especially when snow is on the ground and food is scarce, rabbits feed on the tender bark of many kinds of young fruit trees. The trees may be protected by using mechanical barriers, chemical repellents or baits.

Wheeling Cards have big week end

Last week, Wednesday, the Wheeling Cardinals upset the strong Lake Zurich team at Libertyville by the score of 8-5. This team had not lost a game until they met the Cards and this makes the first half of this race very close, with the Wheeling team now one game out of first place.

They also came through victorious with their first game at home on Sunday when they defeated the Kelly Rose Bowl, of Libertyville, by a score of 12 to 9. ### Barrington falls before locals Friday

Bensenville high school nine copped a share of the Northwest conference diamond crown Friday afternoon of last week when they took the measure of Barrington, 3-2, in a last inning finish.

Score was knotted at 2-all going into the final frame when Coach Meneguigui charges pushed across the winning marker. Borg's single, after Keller had been hit by a pitched ball, and Mueller walked, was the deciding punch.

For once big Bob Thollander came out second best in the pitchers' labors, tying Dietrich on walks allowed with three, but falling behind with strikeouts accomplished with 5 as against the loser's 9.

The Bisons scratched but 5 safeties, one a double by Mueller. The Broncs gathered seven hits, but couldn't bunch them to make the payoff. Dietrich also tossed 3 wild pitches.

Barrington takes lead

Barrington jumped to an early lead, only to find it short lived. In the second stanza, with one out, Jepson tripled and Wilkin

In the latter half of the inning Keller singled and Weber walked. Both waited while Holstrum flied out, and scored on Mueller's two-bagger.

The Bisons have thus concluded their athletic program for the year gaining a 9-1 tally in baseball. Northbrook had previously finished their schedule the two teams tied for the championship. Each team beat the other 1-0.

Esp, Dietrich make all-star

The roster of the Suburban team is almost complete for the second annual all-star high school baseball game July 1 at Comiskey Park.

Ten players have been selected. Four more—from the Suburban League—and the squad will be set for the all-important meeting with the Chicago All-Stars. The prep classic will follow a regular game between the White Sox and the Detroit Tigers.

Latest to be named on Suburban team were Jan Mandel, pitcher, and Norm Spear, catcher, star battery of the Argo nine that reached the state prep finals at Peoria last week.

Mandel and Spear will represent the South Suburban League in the game. Honored earlier were Don Bagg, hard-hitting catcher, and Ronny Burrus, second baseman who is hitting a cool .500, both of La Grange's newly-crowned West Suburban League champions.

Other Suburban selectees are Bert Haglund, pitcher, Warren, Dick Blanchette, outfielder, Leyden; Art Esp, catcher, Northbrook, and Burnell Dietrich, pitcher, Barrington.

Designated as "Ladies and School Children's Day," women and school children will be admitted to Chicago's baseball doubleheader of the year for only a 25-cent tax ticket.

Approximately 35,000 grandstand seats will be available under this arrangement. Dozens of civic organizations are taking advantage of the unusual offer and plan to send hundreds of youngsters, many of them underprivileged, to see baseball's greats of today in action and the stars of tomorrow. Make Tuesday, July 1, the family's day at Comiskey Park.

Catches trout

Numerous Arlington Heights fishermen headed north to Lake Superior in April in quest of fish, but came home empty-handed. Two weeks ago John Heintz of Arlington returned to those shores for another attempt, accompanied by Harold Lawin of Crystal Lake.

John caught a full quota several days while up there, bringing in many rainbow and steel head trout weighing from 3-7 pounds.

They may not rate alongside that tarpon shown on the sport page last week," said John, "but any trout fisherman knows 7 pound trout are just as outstanding."

Jim Ladd pitches for Tennessee team

Big Jim Ladd, former Ela high school baseball star, pitched the Union City Greyhounds to an 8-0 victory over Mayfield Clothiers recently, notching his second three-hit shutout of the season. Jim's record now stands at three wins against a single loss. He has fanned his pitches past 53 opposing batters in 33 innings pitched.

Union City, located in Tennessee, is a Cleveland Indian farm club. Jim calls Prairie View home.

Plan summer sports for men at Arlington

In response to questions asked about tennis and adult activities in the evenings, the Arlington Heights park district recreational program will include activities in volleyball and horse shoes for men who are interested.

Don Peters will be in charge of contacting persons who are interested in the above activities. If there is a worth while response, contact will be made for an exhibition and organization of a tennis team or horse shoe team to challenge other town clubs for inter-town matches.

Mr. Peters has been assigned for this program and will be available from 6:00 p. m. to 7:00 p. m. daily.

In order to get this program rolling, it is important that all individuals interested contact the recreational director, Mr. Vokac, or Don Peter, starting Monday, June 16.

The men's horse shoe and volleyball activities can be organized on the same basis as tennis, providing that participation is good enough to contact park district in Niles, Park Ridge, DesPlaines, Barrington and Crystal Lake.

This week cards are in the mail calling your attention to the park activities this summer. Saturday, June 14, at 10 a. m. there will be a field day of running races for youngsters in four age groups, both for boys and girls and awards for first, second and third place will be awarded.

Mildred Engelking, Robert Gathman marry

Green palms and vases and baskets of mixed flowers formed the St. Peter Lutheran church altar setting for the marriage of Miss Mildred Engelking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Engelking of Arlington Heights, and Robert Gathman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gathman of Palatine. The double ring ceremony took place Saturday afternoon and was performed by Rev. L. V.

Stephan. Two solos, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," were rendered by Mrs. Melvin Laseke, who was accompanied by Otto Kolb at the organ.

A dress of white slipper satin, styled with fitted bodice, having a sweetheart neckline and beaded trim, and full skirt, was worn by the bride. Her long, lace-trimmed veil, had a double blusher and was held in place by a beaded crown. White roses, with an orchid center, made up the bridal bouquet and the bride wore a ruby and opal ring, which was a gift of the groom. Mr. Engelking gave his daughter in marriage.

Maid of honor for the bride was Adeline Engelking, who wore a green taffeta dress, trimmed in lace. Serving as bridesmaids were Norma Gathman, Myrtle Engelking, Frances Bodor, and Ruth Swante. They wore pink and yellow gowns identical to the maid of honor's. Each of the bride's attendants were given a string of pearls, pearl ear rings, and sequin bags, all gifts from the bride. Their flowers were shaped into cascade bouquets, each tied with a ribbon to match their dresses.

The two little flower girls were Joy Meyer and Janice Clausen. They received blue lockets and sequin bags as gifts from the bride.

Richard Gathman was best man for the bridegroom and Ray Gathman, William Nolting, Anthony Bodor, and Anthony Swante acted as ushers. The men all wore dark trousers and white coats and had carnation boutonnières.

The men attendants were given initial tie clasps as a gift from the groom.

A light blue, lace-trimmed dress was worn by the bride's mother, while the groom's mother chose to wear a navy blue dress with white embroidered bodice. Their dresses were set off by red rose corsages.

About 500 relatives and friends attended the reception, which was held at the field house. Sunday about 65 guests came to view the newlyweds many lovely gifts, which were displayed at the home of the bride's parents.

Ellen Andersen and Edward Crofoot marry

A single ring ceremony united in holy matrimony Miss Ellen Andersen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Andersen, and Edward W. Crofoot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Crofoot, all of Arlington Heights. The wedding took place last Saturday at the Methodist Meeting House and the solemn vows of marriage were repeated after Rev. Milo J. Vondracek. Baskets of white peonies, gladioli, snapdragons, carnations and mums, banked with palms and magnolia leaves, decked the altar, with tall candleabra casting a soft glow to the entire setting.

Organ selections for the wedding were played by Miss Lois Andersen, cousin of the bride, with the vocal renditions, "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer," being done by Miss Ruth Studtmann.

Miss Andersen entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore an ivory satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice, having a high round neckline, full length sleeves, and peplum waistline edged with satin rose buds; and a full skirt ending in a long train. A halo headpiece, trimmed with seed pearls, held her full length veil in place. For jewelry, the bride wore a wrist

A dusty rose taffeta dress was worn by Carol Peter, who served as maid of honor. Her dress was styled with plain bodice, with high neckline and cap sleeves, and a full skirt. She wore white mits and a braided taffeta headpiece to match her dress. The neckline of her dress was set off by a pearl necklace, which was a gift of the bride. Miss Peter carried a shower bouquet of blue peonies and pink carnations, tied with a large blue taffeta bow.

Their accessories were the same as the maid of honor's, including pearl necklaces, which were a gift from the bride. Their shower bouquets were made of pink peonies and carnations, and were tied with a large pink taffeta bow.

Suzanne Busse, three year old niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a gown of yellow taffeta, styled as the other bride's attendants, and carried a shower bouquet of yellow daisies. She also wore a pearl necklace.

Midget auto races Friday

Box offices at Hansen Park Stadium, Fullerton and Central Aves., will open Friday noon, this week, so that midget auto race fans can get their tickets in advance, if they wish, for the Friday night events. The weekly midget card, inaugurated last Friday night, will continue event of race on a Friday night, through the summer. In the races will always be staged on Saturday night, according to officials of the Untio Auto Racing Association, sponsoring the events.

Some extra feature races will be added to the Friday night card this assuring enthusiasts plenty of thrills from the time the trials start, at 6 p. m., through the eight major races and the added feature.

Ferdie Scholtes, whose car "Zero" overturned in the trials last Friday night has been released from Norwegian-American hospital where he was hurt. He has a broken rib and bruises but expects to be back on the frey within a week.

General admission remains at a dollar, plus federal tax, with half-price for children. Added box offices have been installed, for the convenience of fans. In the lineup for Friday will be the regular favorites plus some new talent, enticed into the contests because of the sporty track. All are out to break the track record of 20:46 seconds set by Danny Klatis. This is just 3 seconds under the record on the Soldier Field track which is cement and does not have the hazards of the dirt oval, racing executives point out. The Soldier Field record is 17:01.

Unique bridal shower for Mt. Prospect bride

Miss Norma Meeske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meeske of Mt. Prospect, was pleasantly surprised at a miscellaneous shower given in her honor Sunday afternoon, May 25. The sewing room of St. Peter parish house, Arlington Heights, was beautifully decorated with a garden setting. A white fence for the back ground on a large plot of grass was surrounded with geraniums and begonias. Under a pink blossom covered bower the bride and groom-to-be opened their many lovely gifts.

After viewing the gifts, thirty-six friends and relatives enjoyed the playing of bingo. Following the distribution of prizes to the fifteen lucky ladies a casserole supper was served. Angel food cake with green ice cream was the luscious dessert. The huge table set in all green and white with white hand crocheted nut cups had for a center piece a complete bridal party as pictured above.

Miss Norma Meeske will become the bride of Mr. Charles Nitz on June 28. Hostesses were Mesdames John W. Busse and Ernest Meeske.

Joyce Wille and Donald Kempf exchange vows

The wedding ceremony of Miss Joyce Wille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Wille of Mt. Prospect and Mr. Donald M. Kempf, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kempf of Arlington Heights, took place at the Mt. Prospect St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran church last Saturday. The marriage vows were repeated after Rev. John M. Kempf, father of the bridegroom.

A garden setting, made up of a picket fence, surrounded by palms, with a gate through which the groom entered to receive the bride, decked the altar. The solemn vows were repeated under an arch decorated with bridal wreath.

Miss Wille, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white organdie eyelet gown, fashioned with high neckline, cap sleeves, and buttons down the back, ending in a fishtail peplum of eyelet material at the waistline. The dress had a long full skirt and train and was set off by a fingertip veil held in place by a halo of eyelet material, to match the dress. She also wore matching mitts and carried a bouquet of white lilies.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Audrey Jane Wille, who wore a peach organdie eyelet gown. Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Page and Miss Dorothy Greinke, and they were dressed in aqua organdie eyelet dresses.

All the bride's attendants carried unusual bouquets of deep lavender lilies and wore matching halos in their hair.

The flower girl was Miss Susan Studtmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Studtmann of Des Plaines. She wore a gown identical to the bridesmaids. The ring bearer was Tommy Busse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Busse of Mt. Prospect.

Bruce Kempf, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Serving as ushers were Art Schroeder of Detroit, a cousin of the groom, and Elmer W. Wille, brother of the bride. They all wore summer tuxedos.

Mrs. Wille chose to wear a magnolia colored crepe dress for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Kempf wore a pale blue crepe dress and both mothers had corsages of white gardenias.

Following the ceremony a dinner and reception for 200 guests was held at the Lutheran school hall, with Otto Arnst of Skokie acting as toastmaster.

The newlyweds are now on a ten day honeymoon that will take them to Turkey Run, Ind., and other points South.

Board to pass pool ordinance

The Palatine Enterprise has been asked to voice its disapproval of the practice of young men playing pool for money. It is true that it is bad for the boys to stake money on their bill with a cut, but it is only at their elders' are doing!

The village board will pass pool ordinance at its next meeting, after which time complaints can be made to the police department, who will ask the mayor to revoke the license on all tables on which gambling is permitted. That is the only way to stop the practice.

Will Shermerville become dry?

Will Shermerville become dry? This was the significant question brought up at the regular monthly meeting of the board by Trustee Shilling in demanding a vote on whether the saloon license should be $500 from $750 since the Sunday drought has been effective.

The remarks implied that the saloonkeepers were when the next license period came around if the figures were still $500 all the liquor dealers would quit. The matter was tabled till the next meeting.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

er Jane:

This letter seems incoherent, I must excuse me. You see, I am up in the clouds these days, I can't come down to earth. I feel the entire family is excited and very happy.

You can have three guesses as to who you must be thinking of. I'll need only one. However, I can't keep you in suspense a moment longer.

I have two wonderful things to tell you—Bob, Jr. is out of the Navy after four years, and Betty and he are engaged.

I suppose all parents wonder some time what their daughters and sons-in-law will be like. Now we have. I have often told to Rob that I hoped the girls' wives would love us, not only because we would be their parents-in-law, but also because they liked us as individuals. And I would want to see my daughters-in-law for the reason.

If Americans followed the system of the old Chinese—that of setting wives for their sons, would have chosen Patty for Bob. She seemed like a member of the family the very first time she visited us here at the home. The younger boys adore her, and show her constant evidence of their interest and devotion. So much so, I feel I must "rescue" her at times in order to give her a rest from her demands to play with them. It's "Patty, play badminton with us" or "bide with us" or "show me how to play the piano," actually, a thousand different things! And the unusual and pleasing fact is, she's always willing, ready and capable.

In thinking about my future daughter-in-law, it never occurred to me that she would be interested in many of the things I am. But Patty is. Can you imagine how delighted I am?

She loves music, and is an accomplished pianist. And bless

Not that I'll ever be note perfect, but it's so much fun to perform for "our men," who appear to be somewhat impressed by our rendition of Percy Granger's "Country Garden," (in its most simplified version) within a week.

Tales of the STREET

BY I. C. HART

APPRECIATION

Last winter Mayor DePue received a letter addressed to the "burgomaster" of Palatine from a German family behind the iron curtain of the Russian zone. That letter was an appeal for help and told some of the shortages with which the people of that country had to put up with.

As a result of that letter several people sent packages to the family, but no one heard anything from them. At last, the other day, comes a letter from the land of mystery behind that Russian veil.

Mrs. Helga Schultz received a letter from the family. The translation of that letter is published herewith. It shows that the help sent was appreciated and others will probably be receiving letters in answer to packages which they sent.

"Our happiness over our first package was so great that we cried for joy. There are still people in this world that help us in this, our greatest need of all time. When the need is greatest God is nearest."

"Tonight we had soup made from some of the foodstuffs in the packages. We were cold and hungry all through the bitter winter. Even peas or beans, which would have kept us from hunger, were virtually nonexistent. At Easter we didn't have any eggs or cake."

"I hope the peace with Germany will be favorable so the sun will shine again for us Germans and we will again have enough to eat."

"Many thanks to the mayor for publishing my letter, and may God protect you and all the American people."

Erich Goltz, Griensowstrasse 4, Berlin Pankow, Russian Zone, Germany.

HALTS INVASION

The invasion of the east side of town by woodchucks or groundhogs as they are commonly called had begun to be a real menace to the gardeners of that area so Julius Drexler, when he saw two of the animals duck under his barn one evening, decided it was time something was done about it.

Julius borrowed a gun and began a regular evening vigil for the animals. One evening as it was getting dark he spotted one sneaking under the woodpile and banged away but Mr. Groundhog beat it under the barn to safety.

A night or two later the hunter had better luck. He saw one poke his nose out from under his barn and he patiently camped there and watched that hole. Pretty soon Mr. Groundhog started to come out of his den, bang went Julius' gun and there was one less groundhog to threaten the gardens of that neighborhood. Julius got a spade and gave his victim a decent burial and then came the pay off.

Charlie Klopp, who is quite a fisherman, heard that Julius had shot a woodchuck and at once wanted to know what had become of the hide. It seems the fur of the woodchuck is in great demand by fly fishermen to make flies for casting. The fact that the woodchuck was already buried didn't daunt Charlie any. The animal was removed from his resting place and carted away so his hide could be made into lures for trout fishermen.

RABBITS AT IT

The rabbits seem to be up to their old stunts again of chewing off tomato plants. Fred Blume reported the other morning that something was cutting off the tomato plants in his neighborhood; he thought it was some sort of a worm. But from Fred's description of the way the plants are cut off a short distance above the ground it looks very much like the work of rabbits.

The pests have done that in our area, and last year they gave Clyde Moffett the miseries by the way they went after his plants and as there are an abundance of rabbits around this year we rather believe it's they that are to blame.

We had a row of peas that looked as if they might survive the floods, but then along came the rabbits and moved them down. Fred complained that they had just bet it's the same tribe that have clipped off his and Herman Zinn's tomatoes.

FRUIT OUTLOOK

Some folks with strawberry patches report that prospects look pretty good for a nice crop, but fruit growers as a whole are not very optimistic about the fruit outlook this year outside of the strawberries.

While all fruit trees bloomed profusely, the heavy rains at blooming time cut down the pollenization and most fruit growers are looking for a very short crop.

PROFUSE BLOOMS

While we're talking about the profuse bloom of the fruit trees, what trees and flowers didn't bloom profusely this year? Never were the lilacs more beautiful than they were this year, and the cool weather gave them a much longer blooming period than is usual.

Tulips, too, were gorgeous and long lasting, and every manner of blooming shrub, tree and plant certainly produced this year as never before. So there was some compensation to the rainy season after all as it gave us one of the most gorgeous flower exhibitions of all time.

LATE PLANTING

But the beauty of the flowers doesn't mean much to the farmer who is trying desperately to get some sort of a seed bed out of the tough bumpy soil in which to plant his corn now to the truck grower whose early plantings were flooded out and a lot of whom are reported to be putting their tools away until next year and just writing this

READING & WRITING

BY Robin McKoun

If you've ever been under the spell of the forests and the mountains and the winds of the West, you'll find pleasure in "The Big Sky" by A. B. Guthrie, Jr., a novel about that "raw, vast, lonesome land," as it was in the 1830's and 40's.

A. B. GUTHRIE

The central character is Boone Caudill, schooled by the wilderness in the business of survival. He had been headstrong from the beginning. At the age of seventeen, we see him clubbing his father with a stick of firewood and fleeing his home in Kentucky. Thirteen years later he returned from the high mountains. Some thought he was an Indian, and with reason. His hair was in Indian braids, he wore Indian clothes. He had married an Indian squaw. His face was swarthy and weather beaten. He even talked in gutturals.

Not a Indian characteristic, however, was his quick murderous rage. People said he'd as soon kill a man as look at him. In the end, it was this uncontrollable temper that boomeranged to destroy him. "The Big Sky" is specially recommended by the Book-of-the-Month Club.

In "The Road to Music," Nicolas Slonimsky tells of some curiously realistic touches which some musicians have thought up for their compositions. In one ultra-modern piece called "The Anatomy of Melancholy," the composer, whose name remains unmentioned, includes a special part for a cat's meow, to be produced by a live cat pulled by the tail! The piece, however, was never performed for fear that the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals might have something to say about such unmusical treatment of cats!

In the early days of Soviet Russia, composers went in for some particularly unconventional themes, says Mr. Slonimsky. The Soviet composer, Dmitri Shostakovich, wrote an opera called "The Nose," built around a story about an army major whose nose mysteriously vanished while he was being shaved in a barbershop. Happily, it returned after a number of curious adventures. Among the unusual effects in the score, is an orchestral sneeze, hiccoughs on the harp, and a chorus of eight janitors singing eight different advertisements.

Urges two-school cooperation in athletic education, development of Palatine youth

THE NEXT STEP

Palatine has done more the past five or six years towards community betterment than they did the previous twenty. Let's hope they keep it up, and make the town the social and economic center of the township for the financial and moral benefit of all.

For one thing, part of the business area was cleaned up and modernized, though there is still much more to be done. The new railroad station with its accompanying blocking of dangerous crossings and new parking areas seem to be a definite plan of the not too far future.

Second, the consolidated grade school has become a reality insofar as administration is concerned, with the future holding definite plans for building and site of the new, all-modern school building. This is perhaps the most important development in the town and area, because of the added educational opportunities to be provided all children, particularly those in the outlying, one-room school districts.

Third, the formation of a park district; the original "postcard" leadership of the Enterprise, formation of the district, election of the board, and approval of bonds for land purchase and playground construction.

Fourth, acres and acres of land have been "cleaned up" in the way of back taxes, and new homes have been and are being built to provide homes for a great influx of new "young blood" into the town, which in itself will provide for more community financial and social advancement in the future.

Next step, in my opinion, and I am but an amateur in matters

It Happened Here

Redheaded Woodpecker

He, there, with the red cockade. For him the tree's rough bark was made:

He knows it fits his gay attire. So he clings, his head a jewel of fire.

He hammer away with vim and zest

And the chips fly east, the chips fly west;

Then out and off he is gayly swinging.

From trunk to trunk in loops is swinging:

The gloom of the deep ravines he lights

With his ever darting, erratic flights;

He's a woodsman true, of that be sure,

He wears the red cap of the voyageur.

O, you and the boy with the fishing rod,

Carefree and gay and quite near to God!

S'Amuser

freak spring of 1947 off as a complete loss.

OLD OPTIMIST

Bill Bauman, old man optimist himself, still assures us that a good corn crop can be made in spite of everything. Bill, you know, sells Pioneer seed corn and he's sure that that corn can grow fast enough so that it can be put in the ground anywhere near soon as a bumper crop can be realized.

We saw them getting a field ready for some of that Pioneer out at Bill's place the other day and that field really looked like it was going to be a pretty nice seed bed so we'll be looking for that record yield of Pioneer off that field.

Bill, by the way, says the old freezer is still about full of food and they'll have enough to live on even if they didn't raise anything this year. Bill is still sure that everything is going to be lovely before snow flies and that crops will be harvested the same as usual.

VACATIONER

We ran across Walter Helms the other day on the last lap of what was his annual vacation spent, as he told some of his fellow workers, "right in his own home town doing nothing."

Walter said he'd been looking things over and found the town in pretty good shape except for that awful bad spot in the east Wood street pavement, east of the high school. He said, "You write all sorts of pieces about that railroad I work for, why don't you light on some of these other things around here?"

Within 48 hours after that conversation that street was closed so Walter, you see the power of the press is mighty some times even without breaking in to print. Now if we had half as much influence with your railroad as we did with local officials, maybe we'd get some place.

Meanwhile Walter, look out for those robins that are eyeing your strawberry patch and get that mosquito netting to working before they get away with all your shortcakes.

of legal procedure, is either 100% cooperation or dual management of the consolidated grade and high schools.

The entire township is interested in education of its youngsters and education includes social and athletic activities as well as "reading and writing."

Briefly, we need a township-wide, two school athletic program for the development of bodies of students from fourth grade age on through high school. And present system of having just one gymnasium, or even two small ones, will not provide a sufficient program for the entire student bodies now and ten years hence.

Anyone attending high school basketball games the past two years knows the facilities of the high school gymnasium are inadequate for basketball games. Practically speaking, more paid admissions for school contests lightens the burden on the taxpayers for money otherwise used for physical education equipment, footballs, track hurdles, etc., could be used to hire better teachers and build more school rooms.

But when two or three hundred persons are turned away from one basketball game, $100 to $150 in receipts is thrown down the drain.

Even more important, wider community interest in high school sport contests prompts boys and girls to better efforts to excel with its attendant physical and mental development.

Rumor has it that grade school plans include a gymnasium, but without seating capacity. Just across the street, the high school will probably soon have to build additional classrooms, as well as a new gymnasium.

Why not have the two school boards cooperate in building a gymnasium large enough for both schools AND the town? A gym and fieldhouse including indoor track, possibly a swim pool, and a basketball court large enough to make two practice floors could well be used in Palatine.

In the future

THINGS TO COME — Now you can see what you are smoking: the newest thing in pipes features a crystal-clear quartz bowl, obviously aimed at the gift trade. . . . A new synthetic product for use in spraying bread pans. It leaves a glaze on the pan which eliminates the necessity of larding pans each time the dough is prepared for baking. . . . A Detroit manufacturer has devised a new jack which, he claims, can be worked without bending over after placing the jack in position. You power a hydraulic unit with your foot; the jack develops enough power to lift a car a total of 14 inches. . . . New York department stores have a new wrinkle. They run Mickey Mouse and other child pictures to keep children amused while mothers shop. . . . Look for announcement soon on a new type of refrigerator car which can hold a near zero temperature for 10 days and is suitable for carrying frozen foods. . . . If you like picnics you may be interested in seeing a new charcoal grill that folds up and carries like a briefcase.

Instead of the present high school gym seating, standing and crowding 800 spectators, how about a building that would seat 1500 for scheduled basketball games, with indoor track in the basement or up above, plus a possible swimming pool or pools for swim instruction?

Present funds of the grade school that may be set aside for their gym could and should be matched by the big school for just such an athletic plant, with physical education of both schools operating under one department and use of both gyms.

I repeat, there may be legal and "old time" shaking of heads over this proposition, but for the benefit of the town, schools and youth of tomorrow, I hope the above proposition becomes a reality.

Bob Young Palatine.

The Park Ridge "nuisance" law, forbidding soliciting and peddling within the city, has been declared unconstitutional by the Superior Court, Herbert Steffels, temporary city attorney, reported to the city council last week.

YOUR DENTAL I Q

(Contributed by the Committee on Dental Health Education of the Chicago Dental Society)

Question: My teeth bleed even when I do not wash them, otherwise they are in perfect condition. What is the cause?—G. B. Jr.

Answer: There are many causes of bleeding gums. Tar deposits on the teeth is one. Fillings that have not been properly built in relation to a neighboring tooth may be another—bad neighbors so to speak, allowing food to wedge between the teeth and irritate the gums. Irregular and missing teeth are another common cause. In these days of hurry, carelessness and overcooking, gums are deprived of exercise. This has a tendency to cause them to become soft and inflamed. Certain diseases such as Vincent's infection, (Trench Mouth) and Scurvy will cause the gums to bleed. Persons suffering from bleeding gums should permit a good dentist to determine the cause, after which proper treatment can be instituted.

Question: Do you consider gold teeth (crowns) on bridge work detrimental to your health in any way?—S. A. K.

Answer: Not if they are properly made and carefully fitted to the abutment teeth. Be sure that the abutment teeth themselves are sound and healthy.

Denture (plate) wearers should shrink and change shape. This in turn causes the dentures to

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Charlie is not his real name, but it will do. He is a good mixer, and has many friends. He is the type that inspires to emulation. But he is far from being a good man to pattern after.

For Charlie holds a point of view with which you, as well as myself, are familiar. I was talking to him not long ago, and during our conversation he made the unfortunate remark which I have heard too many times.

"I'll live my own life!" he exclaimed. "And what I do or say is no body else's business!"

Charlie does live his own life too. More than once he has made it a point to meet me on the route before he moved, and intercept letters from lady friends that might otherwise come into the hands of his wife. He drinks more than he should, has little regard for religion, and ridicules anyone who tries to live a decent, moral life.

Such a man can do irreparable damage to people about him. Naturally of a charming, engaging personality, convincing in argument, he influences others about him with perfect ease. He is a dangerous man to associate with.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: While I was in service, I did not take out a National Life Insurance policy. Is it possible for me to apply for it now?

Answer: Yes. Veterans who did not take out National Service Life Insurance while in service may apply for it and may not be denied a policy by reason of any disability incurred in or aggravated by service. An examination may be required. You apply at your nearest Veterans Administration Office, which is located at 615 W. Van Buren street.

Question: I am attending school under the G.I. Bill, but I expect to change to another school during the summer months. Is it possible for me to do this and how do I go about making this change?

Answer: G.I. students who expect to shift to another school for the summer months must apply immediately for a supplemental certificate of eligibility. Applications may be obtained from the registrar, veterans' coordinator or training officer at the school or from any VA office. It should be filled out and sent to the VA regional office having jurisdiction over the school you are now attending.

Question: Can man and wife who are both veterans receive benefits under the G.I. Bill?

Answer: Yes, if they are both entitled to them. In the case of veterans attending school under the G.I. Bill—married women veterans may receive monthly subsistence allowance while attending school even though they are recognized by the VA as dependents of husbands also attending school. The same income limitations for outside work apply equally to both.

Question: If I am receiving disability compensation from the Veterans' Administration, can I move to some other state and continue to draw this?

Answer: Yes. Be sure to notify the Veterans' Administration of your change of address immediately.

WORDS OFTEN MISUSED

Do not say, "She said that her mother is coming." Say, "She said that her mother was coming," or, "She says that her mother is coming."
Avoid the phrase "and oblige" when concluding a letter. It is not in good use.
Do not say, "After she had sat (or set) her guests." Say, "After she had seated her guests."

Do not say "The building was razed to the ground." To the ground is tautological, as raze means to level to the ground.

Do not say, "He is adapted to the work." Say, "He is adapted for the work."

Do not say, "Take a hold of this piece." Say, "Take hold of this piece."

Dr. Piszczek explains polio

The specter of polio is better understood and does not seem so terrifying to the parents who attended the meeting of the Palatine Community Club June 2 and heard Dr. I. A. Piszczek, Cook County Health Officer, talk on that subject. The speaker is recognized as one of the foremost polio authorities in this country. He has made an exhaustive study of that disease and with the polio research unit in Chicago, has secured much information on the sickness.

Medical science has been able to isolate the polio virus. The cause of the disease is better known today. While it is true that absolute prevention and cure are still to be found, modern medical skill and techniques can now reduce to a minimum its evil effects.

Polio is a deadly disease inasmuch as one out of four afflicted with its worst type die. Eight out of ten afflicted with other types will live. Charts prepared by Dr. Piszczek told the story of the epidemics of the past ten years. The reasons for those epidemics has not yet been learned, the doctor told his audience that 7,500 cases can be expected throughout the United States every year. When they increase to 12,000 cases, it becomes a major epidemic.

With the use of films the speaker showed the treatment that is now being given children and adults who have the disease. They also illustrated the early symptoms and how they should be handled.

Preventive measures

Parents present were especially interested in preventive measures to guard against the disease. The answer given by the doctor was "sane and sanitary living." The inactive child seldom contracts the disease. It is the child who tires himself out from over-exercise who is most susceptible. Cleanliness of person and cleanliness of all foods eaten is almost a guarantee of health.

Unwashed fruit and vegetables are among the causes of infection, the major cause being unsanitary toilet facilities. There are many carriers of the disease who do not become personally infected. Tests have proven that it is spread by these carriers largely through the normal discharges of the body.

Dr. Piszczek supplemented general facts with specific studies that had been made of polio cases in Cook county, tracing them from their start to the various families later infected. A lawn lemonade stand manned by small children was the cause of its spread to several families. Week end camps without proper refrigeration of food caused another outbreak last year in western Cook county.

Arlington relief committee gets letters of thanks from Europe

"I am a widow with 9 children. That all these gifts are for us is almost unbelievable. My two oldest sons lost their lives in the war, while the youngest came back home to us from an American prison camp, where he had more to eat in one day than here in a week."

Such a letter from German families receiving food and clothing packages from the Lutheran World Relief committee is ample repayment for money, time and effort, according to Kurt Stoeckel, chairman of the Arlington Heights committee of St. Peter's church.

About six months ago the local relief committee was formed in Arlington Heights with the aim of helping suffering European families by sending packages of food and clothing. Twenty-five names were drawn from a list supplied by Missouri Synod headquarters in St. Louis and the Arlington group set to work.

Contributions of both money and clothing were received from church members. Food packages were sent from St. Louis, while over 90 packages of clothing have been sent from the Stoeckel basement in the Heights. Other members of the committee are Al Adams, Fred Rohlfing, and Bill Neitzel.

At first committee members did their work from a sense of duty, but then letters started arriving from Europe. The original 25 families were all heard from, plus several dozen more who heard of the work of the group, and sought aid.

"We aren't attempting to take care of more than the original 25," said Chairman Stoeckel, "as lack of sufficient funds prevents doing that. But if there are any local families who would like to "adopt" an European family, we will be glad to supply the name."

Excerpts of some of the letters follow:

We would not know what to do without your help. Received 8 of your food packages and 2 clothing packages already. All the clothes fit, as if they were made for us. What a joy for us, when we found among all the clothing a can of fat and some thread.

Received 4 of your nice packages, in which we found things that we were unable to buy here for years. My father is an invalid and my son lost the right hand in the war.

We are a displaced family of 5. Cannot realize that all this help is coming from America. If it is possible, please send us some thread, so we can patch up some of our old clothing.

We received your first package Jan. 17. They contain all good things to eat; and also cigarettes. We have 9 children, ranging from 1 to 14 years. Our shoes are so worn out that we have to make our own from straw, because we are unable to buy shoes here any more.

Received 9 packages from America. What a joy every time the postman comes and brings us notice that a package is at the postoffice for us. Everybody is willing to walk the 5 kilometers and get the package. For my oldest daughter I had to borrow a pair of shoes for her confirmation. My youngest daughter was born in Koeln amidst an American bombing raid.

Would it be asking too much if I ask you to please send a pair of shoes for my father (size 10)? My only brother and my two sons-in-law were killed, and my husband is missing since January, 1943.

We pastors suffered extreme hardships under the Nazi regime. I wish you could witness the unpacking of each package. How the 7 children rejoice over each item.

Received so far 7 of your food packages. Living quarters are filled to capacity, since the displaced persons from the east are coming to us in the western part

Chicago and Northern Illinois . . . Future Medical Capital of the World

Already known throughout the world for its schools of medicine, institutes of scientific research, and large, well-staffed hospitals, the Chicago and Northern Illinois area will continue to attract important men of medicine from the world over.

Today, the area is the site of four medical and three dental schools of highest standing. Practical training is carried on in the 174 hospitals, and 27 sanitariums and infirmaries containing 71,349 beds. Here, also, are the homes of a dozen national and international organizations in medicine and related fields. The territory is now the world center for medical information . . . more than forty medical and allied journals are published here.

Within the next few years, Chicago and Northern Illinois is destined to rank above all the great medical centers in history. Three tremendous expansion programs are far beyond the planning stage with most of the land for the buildings already purchased. Public and private sources have pledged additional funds for the establishment of new medical facilities, hospitals and laboratories to cover many acres of land and to cost hundreds of millions of dollars.

In the Medical Center District project, the University of Illinois and Loyola University, the State Department of Public Welfare and the Veterans' Administration will erect a community of new buildings for the study of public health, industry and aviation medicine. In another of these vast programs, Northwestern University plans ten new buildings, including an Institute for Medical Research in such fields as heart ailments, cancer and high blood pressure. Other buildings in this group will enlarge the facilities for special medical studies, hospital care and the nursing school. As part of this project the Veterans' Administration will erect a hospital, and Mercy Hospital will install a one thousand bed hospital unit and a research center.

At the University of Chicago still another of these expansion programs is under way. Four new clinic buildings and four buildings for atomic research, including the Institute of Radiobiology and Bio-physics, will be added. Extensive investigation will be conducted into the new possibilities in medicine, particularly in cancer, opened by the development of atomic research. Throughout all of Chicago and Northern Illinois many other groups have announced plans totaling more than 200 million dollars for hospital facilities.

Students and doctors seeking opportunities for research, advanced study, and actual training under foremost physicians and surgeons will turn to the many hospitals and schools here. As the land is being cleared in multi-million dollar programs, and as the finest hospital and laboratory equipment in the world pours in, future world leadership in the field of medicine is assured for Chicago and Northern Illinois.

Industries in this area have these outstanding advantages: Railroad Center of the United States • World Airport • Inland Waterways • Geographical Center of U. S. Population • Great Financial Center • The "Great Central Market" • Food Producing and Processing Center • Leader in Iron and Steel Manufacturing • Good Labor Relations Record • 2,500,000 Kilowatts of Power • Tremendous Coal Reserves • Good Government • Good Living • Good Services for Tax Dollars. Send for free booklets containing useful information on these advantages.

of Germany. We also received the most valuable home-made soap from your Ladies' Aid. Please convey our sincere thanks to them.

Received 4 packages, and can't thank you enough for the help you are giving us. After being driven from our home in the east we finally found a roof over our heads here in the British Zone.

We received 4 packages from America; and please keep on helping us a little while longer for our children's sake. I am a deacon in our congregation, and we are promised a new wooden church building from America. The old building was destroyed during the war.

The arrival of a package from America is just like the night before Christmas. These packages contain coffee, farina, noodle soup, peas, Bisquick, Kraft dinner, rice, fish, corn, sugar, corned beef hash, milk, pudding and candy. We received 7 such packages already.

I was drafted in the German army in 1943; and was American prisoner only for 40 hours. When I came home in August 1945, I found everything bombed out except our church building. Now the American soldiers are furnishing coal and wood to heat our church (January 1947), so that even the older people can attend services again. We received our first package from you January 15, 1947. Now our bread rations are cut again.

Annual meeting of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass., June 2

Affirming that God rules the affairs of man, The Christian Science Board of Directors told the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, that neither fear nor animality can give evil power to boast itself over good.

Supporting this challenge, Mrs. Helen Chaffee Elwell, newly elected President of The Mother Church, urged both pulpit and press to unite in a crusade of righteousness. The hour has struck, she indicated, "for the Church to dare to be a David."

To "the harassed employer and the dissatisfied worker" and to nations generally, the Directors and the President of the Church held out the hope of harmony, not as a miracle, but rather as a simple witnessing to the fact that amity springs naturally from the application of spiritual power.

Not only improved industrial relations and better government, but also the health of the individual can be attained through spiritual understanding, the Directors contended.

Continuing in this theme, Mrs. Elwell said: "There are those who see little hope for amity among nations, who even despair of establishing harmony, peace, or even friendliness among the families of the earth. Their world is dark, indeed."

Beyond that, there are many persons who despair of coping with the unleashed material forces of an atomic age, she pointed out. "Such thinkers," the speaker added, "need to learn the immanence of heaven, the omnipotence, omniscience, and omnipresence of the infinite God, good."

"How shall they hear without a preacher?" the speaker asked. She answered her own question. The Church is that preacher, and to the Christian Church has come the opportunity, unparalleled in Christian history, so to present the true concept of God in His relationship to man and the universe, that men will turn naturally to the teachings of Christ."

The Directors' and The Mother Church President's remarks highlighted one of the largest annual meetings in years, with members of the Church in session from various parts of the world. From California, England, Europe, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa came reports of a growing resurgence in religious activities.

This resurgence was evident in announcements of the largest circulation in the history of the Christian Science periodicals. Lifting of import restrictions have increased sales in the British Isles and opened world-wide distributing channels once more, according to the Trustees of The Christian Science Publishing Society.

The Christian Science Monitor, the Trustees disclosed, attained new circulation peaks in 1946 and gained an increase of 2,500 new advertisers using its columns for a record aggregate of 22,300 advertisers. The paper also instituted the unique and popular practice of completing all front page stories on the front page, the Trustees said.

Installation of new printing presses capable of producing 120,000 forty-page Monitors per hour, and the restoration of color covers to the Magazine section, were added to the Monitor's progress report for the year.

William D. Kilpatrick, Manager of Committees on Publication, reported the failure of many pieces of legislation that would have proved not only inimical to the democratic practice of Christian Science, but also injurious to the entire citizenry.

Today, only one of the 48 states fails legally to recognize Christian Science as a healing medium, Mr. Kilpatrick added. "That one state is Ohio," he said. Since the 1946 annual meeting, he pointed out, West Virginia and Maryland have passed laws legally recognizing the right of Christian Science practice.

In California, passage of an Unemployment Disability Benefits law gave to Christian Science practitioners the same right as physicians to certify to the disability of persons under treatment, Mr. Kilpatrick reported.

Gordon V. Comer, Clerk of The Mother Church, disclosed a substantial increase in church membership in 1946. This he held due to the fruitage of healing throughout the field of Christian Science activities.

These healings, he said, covered a wide variety of diseases, "many of which are considered incurable by schools of medicine."

From this broadening scope of physical healings, Mr. Comer noted that a great many were accomplished by the individual's own reading of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Mr. Comer's report covered the wide fields of postwar activities, literature distribution, Sunday School Division, and the Department of Branches and Practitioners, all of which attested to the general revival of religious progress throughout the postwar world.

This was seen in the opening of new Reading Rooms, the reopening of churches in war-swept lands, and the replenishing of world wide demands for Christian Science periodicals.

His report disclosed that more than 200,000 food parcels were sent to Christian Scientists in 25 hunger-ridden countries during 1946, that food parcels were also transported directly to churches and societies in 11 European countries, and that a gift of 17 tons of books and periodicals was forwarded to German churches the moment shipping channels were reopened.

In conclusion, Mr. Comer echoed the keynote of the annual meeting in these terms: "Today the world is confronted with tremendously important problems. It is a time when the peoples of the world must begin to see that they can no longer lean upon manmade things and theories, but must lean more and more upon divine Principle—upon God."

"This desired state," he said, "must come through an awakening to a higher concept of spiritual values and of true brotherhood."

For the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, George Channing, Chairman, reported increased lecture attendance in this country and abroad. These reports, aside from the United States, came substantially from the British Isles, Australia, New Zealand, and the continent of Europe. Virtually every lecturer received word from local church members of the largest Christian Science lecture attendance ever recorded in their communities.
